Services of an authorised person for public sector partners

For public sector partners, we ensure the fulfilment of all statutory tasks of the authorised person, including entry in the Register of Public Sector Partners and identification of the ultimate beneficial owner.

AVENIAS is a consulting group focused on providing advisory services in the area of taxes and law.

AVENIAS tax advisors and lawyers help clients solve various issues they encounter in their business as well as in other areas of life.

Experience of AVENIAS team members includes a long-term practice in an international consulting environment and performing in-house functions at Slovak companies.

The name of AVENIAS stands for our principles:

AVE stands in Latin for a greeting. Greeting represents our personal approach.

AVENIR means future in French. (AVENIR – à venir “what has to come”). This expresses our effort to think ahead for the benefit of our clients.
